

The Family History Guide

An Overview
by James L. Tanner
Prepared for the BYU Family History Technology Conference
2017

The screenshot shows the homepage of thefhguide.com. The header features the title "The Family History Guide" and a navigation menu with links to "Introduction", "Projects", "Children", "Training", "LDS", and "Topics". Below the header is a banner with a photo of a diverse group of people looking at a computer screen together. A large brown banner across the middle contains the website's URL, "thefhguide.com". To the left of the banner, there's a sidebar with sections for "Your research center", "Countries", and "Projects" (with numbered links 1 through 8). The main content area has three circular icons: a blue location pin icon labeled "INTRODUCTION", a red graduation cap icon labeled "PROJECTS", and a teal graduation cap icon labeled "TRAINING". Below each icon is a brief description of the service.

Key points

- Professionally created
- Structured
- Sequenced
- Best-in-class learning environment
- Broad scope with narrow, helpful focus

Based on current educational technology

- Over 1,200 Goals for learning, supported by over 2,300 flexible Choices
- Step-by-step instructions to make learning easier
- Links to over 2,400 videos and articles from FamilySearch, Ancestry, and more
- QUIKLinks that take you to record searches from multiple sources, with a single click
- Project Tracker sheets and Training materials for self-study or group instruction
- Family history resources for children and for LDS interests

Linked for reference and research

The screenshot shows the 'Countries/Ethnic' page of The Family History Guide. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links to Home, Intro, Projects (which is highlighted in red), Children, Training, Vault, and LDS. Below the navigation is a secondary menu with links to Family Tree, Memories, Descendants, Discover, Indexing, Help, Tech, DNA, and Countries/Ethnic. The main content area features a large image of a suspension bridge over water. Below the image, the text 'Countries/Ethnic' and 'A world of research ... at your fingertips' is displayed. A section titled 'North America' lists US states and Canadian provinces. Another section for 'British Isles' lists English counties and other British entities. At the bottom, there are sections for 'Caribbean', 'Scandinavia', and 'Other Regions'.

FamilySearch Partner

The screenshot shows the 'Technical' training page from FamilySearch. The top navigation bar includes links to Scriptures and Study, Families and Individuals, Share the Gospel, Inspiration and News, and Serve and Teach. Below the navigation, the FamilySearch logo is visible. The main content area has a dark background with white text. It says 'Now linked from LDS.org directly'. To the left, there's a 'Media Resources' section for 'For Priesthood Leaders'. To the right, there's a paragraph about the Family History Guide and a 'Popular Topics:' section. A 'Like' button is located in the top right corner.

Thanks for watching

